

Gerstner Salons Privés – the unique events venue

Make your event into something very special and ensure that your guests have an unforgettable experience – with an event at Gerstner Salons Privés.

In a prominent location vis-à-vis the Wiener Staatsoper, Gerstner Salons Privés is one of the most stunning venues in the city. With its opulent interior with precious ceiling paintings, gold-decorated wood paneling, stunning marble columns and lavish long halls it offers a festive setting for official banquets, receptions and individual events.

The premises are available individually or as an exclusive overall ensemble for evening events. During the day, the venue is available for small private or business meetings and fine dining. The meeting and conference room, Salon Todesco, provides an undisturbed setting, modern presentation equipment and the most stunning views of Albertina and Hofburg.

A magnificent ambience, first class food and drinks and friendly service guarantee a successful event.

Festsaal

The magnificent centerpiece of Gerstner Salons Privés. Fitted with marble columns and a gold-decorated coffered wooden ceiling, it is perfect for receptions and gala dinners.

Salon Todesco

Equipped with modern presentation technology, here you can hold meetings or enjoy a delicious meal – all with stunning views of the Wiener Staatsoper, Albertina and Hofburg.

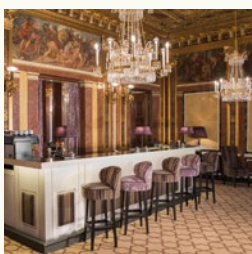

Salon Strauss

The interior design of this lounge features valuable wall paintings, a decorative fireplace and a piano. It has a direct connection to the Festsaal and turns every event into a unique experience – be it a concert, a reading or a dinner.

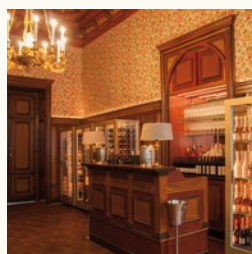

Blauer Salon

This lounge is perfect for meetings or dinners in a private setting, both in the evening and during the day. Silk wallpaper and a magnificent wooden ceiling exude a stylish atmosphere.

Salon Paris

The perfect place to start an event with an aperitif while marvelling at the ceiling painting – the main work of Carl Rahl, „Judgment of Paris“.

Private Bar

The entrance area to “Blauer Salon“ is the perfect place to receive guests in a cosy bar atmosphere or to bring an event to a relaxing close.
